What a wonderful week we had creating and planning special surprises for our mothers! We painted portraits and illustrated our favorite activities with our moms. The children practiced cutting to create flowers and corsages. Everyone was proud to present their keepsake lockets and crowns to their mothers. We loved singing to moms and making them feel loved and celebrated!