We had fun learning all about the four seasons this week. We focused on what happens during each season and what types of clothing we need. We also spent some of this week reading Dr. Seuss books and playing some fun themed activities. We wrote about our favorite season, worked on our apples on top project, played a Cat in the Hat stacking game, and more!